Sir,

As you are aware that on the direction of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the Commission had after consultation with recognized political parties, framed guidelines for Election Manifestos and incorporated the same in the "Model Code of Conduct for the Guidance of the Political Parties and Candidates". The Commission, vide the referred letter, had requested all the political parties to submit their manifestos to the Commission after its release.

2. The Commission has further decided that, whenever a political party issues its manifesto, it must forward three copies of the Manifesto along with its Hindi/English version (if the original version is in regional language) to the concerned Chief electoral Officer within three days of its release.
