It is also very important to mention here that my party has contested on one seat in the General Assembly Election of Andhra Pradesh-2019. But we could not file the Statement of Election Expenditure Report of my party on time and also not filed the Audited Annual Accounts, contribution Reports and Independent Auditor's Reports on time due to lack of knowledge. Sir our party has been registered before the Election Commission of India in the year 2019 and we are very new in politics and after passing the due dates of submission of election expenditure report and Audited Annual Accounts, contribution Reports and Independent Auditor's Reports we came to know about the filing of the above said documents. So we are filing the above said documents very late, but late filing is neither intentional nor deliberate but due to the reasons mentioned above. Please pardon the delay and I will be careful in future. It is also correct that a single rupee has not been spent/incurred by Party Central Head Quarters for any publicity of the party and for any publicity of candidate. No expenditure incurred/authorized by Party Central Head Quarters for general Party Propaganda from the announcement of above said elections to the date of completion of elections. No expenses has been incurred on publicity materials including posters, banners, badges, stickers, arches, gates, cutouts, hoardings, flags, media advertisement attributable as election expenses of any candidate or party. Even at the time of general assembly election of Andhra Pradesh-2019 the party was not having any account in it's name.

Sir, please take the above said documents in the record of your office and also inform to the Election Commission of India, New Delhi, if required, because we are going to file application for common symbol in the Election Commission of India, for General Assembly Election of Andhra Pradesh-2024.

Sir, it is also requested to your esteemed office that after taking the above said documents in the record, kindly acknowledge us through letter and email mentioned above.

I shall be highly obliged for the same. Thanking You

Sincerely Your's
