The Members of YUVA TELANGANA PARTY

REPORT ON FINANCIAL STATEMENTS:

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of "YUVA TELANGANA PARTY", which comprise the balance sheet as at March 31, 2022, the Statement of the income and expenditure A/c and Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended and other explanatory information

Management's responsibility for the financial statements

In AOP , management is responsible with respect to the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the AOP in accordance accounting standards to non corporate entities issued by the ICAI in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India .. This Responsibility includes and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors Responsibility

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards. From the matters communicated with those charged with governance we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid financial statements give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the AOP as at March 31, 2022, its Loss for the year ended on that date.

Report on other legal and regulatory requirements

We Report That

- We have obtained all the information and explanations which is to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit
- In our opinion, Proper books of accounts as required by the law have been kept by the AOP so far as it appears from our examination of those books
- The Balance sheet , the income and expenditure A/c, and the Receipts and payments dealt with by this Report are in agreement with the Books of account
- In Our Opinion, the Balance sheet, the income and expenditure A/c, and the Receipts and payments comply with the Accounting Standards applicable to non corporate entities issued by the ICAI
